Dear Parents and Carers,

Class One, Story Telling with Clive PiG 'Fire Tales'

Clive PiG transported the children on multiple journeys around the world with different folk tales about fire and light.

Class Two, Story Telling with Clive PiG 'The Great Fire of London'

The children enjoyed an amazing story telling session with Clive PiG who helped them to try and imagine what life might have been like in the time of the fire.

Class Three, Sydney Smith Performance at the Northcott Theatre and City Tour Exeter

Class Three enjoyed meeting author and illustrator Sydney Smith. They walked through the city and sketched Exeter Cathedral.

Years Three, Four, Five and Six, Cross Country at Bratton Fleming

The children took part in a windy, muddy and slippery cross country event. They showed great enthusiasm and positivity during the races - well done!

Class Three and Four, Clive PiG 'Ancient Egypt' Workshop

The children enjoyed enriching their history topic through drama with Clive PiG.

Friday 19th November, Children in Need Big Breakfast

We will start serving at 8.00 am - the children may enjoy a bacon bap, sausage bap, toast or cereal for a £1.00 donation.

We would be grateful for donations of the following breakfast items: baps, finger rolls, bacon, sausages /vegetarian sausages, fruit juice, cereal, milk, or butter, by Thursday morning at the latest.

Christmas Cakes

Please send a deep cake tin in with your child so that they can store their family Christmas cake safely. Please note chocolate tubs such as 'Celebrations' are too shallow.

Class One and Two Air Extreme Consent Forms

The children will bring a consent form home please can you complete and return the form to the office on Monday morning.

Unfortunately the 'Shipwreck Sam' Performance has been cancelled due to the performers having Covid but we will rebook and keep you updated.

Kind regards,

Claire Grant
Executive Headteacher
