Dear Parents and Carers,

We are delighted that our kitchen will be back in service on Monday and we welcome Becky Milton to the school team. Becky is passionate about ensuring that children are provided with delicious and nutritious meals. We have a weekly menu in place which will be repeated for the first three weeks whilst Becky becomes familiar with the kitchen and our children's requirements. For these three weeks we have included a cheese or tuna wrap option every day but we are planning to withdraw wraps from the menu and use them only on trips and visits for packed lunches.
