Reading at home with your child in Key Stage Two

Your child has a list of example questions in their reading diary that can be used to help discuss texts with them when reading at home. Thank you for supporting your child's reading progress at home.

Times tables practise at home for children in Key Stage Two

Your child has a list in the back of their reading journal of which times tables they are fluent in and which they need to practise. They will know which specific one they are working on. Please help them to learn them daily alongside their reading. Thank you for your support.

Christmas Shoebox Appeal

We are collecting new small toys, stationery, treats, gloves and hats to fill shoe boxes for children from different countries at Christmas. If you would like to donate any items, we would be very grateful. Please send in donations by Monday 9th November.
